Updates

Jul 09: RESOLVED - Today (July 9th) the website was temporarily unavailable between 00:48 - 01:42 A.M (UTC-4) due to an emergency server maintenance. Everything is back to 100%, so you should be able to use the service normally. If you were affected by this and/or are facing issues, please don't hesitate to contact us! We appreciate your understanding.

Apr 12: RESOLVED - There was an issue with the API URL api.dbcapi.me during the first few hours of Sunday 12th. The issue has been fixed and you should be able to use the address successfully again. If you were affected by this, please Contact Us and we'll compensate you. We appreciate your patience and understanding!

Mar 26: RESOLVED - As of March 24th, you might be experiencing issues with our HTTP Java client. We're working hard to have it fixed ASAP, but in the mid-time, you can use the service normally through our Socket Java client. Contact us at <https://deathbycaptcha.com/user/contact> if you need any assistance or if you're affected by this. We apologize for the inconvenience this may cause you and appreciate your business!
